- (3) Four persons to be nominated by the Government of India;
- (4) Six representatives to be nominated, respectively by the Governments of Andhra Pradesh, Assam, Bihar, Orissa, U.P. and West Bengal, to represent their Agricultural Departments;
- (5) One representative of the Cooperative movement in West Bengal, to be nominated by the Government of West Bengal;
- (6) Seven representatives of the jute industry to be elected by the following:—
 - Two members, to be elected by the Indian Jute Mills Association;
 - Two members, to be elected by the Indian Chamber of Commerce;
 - One member, to be elected by the Bengal Chamber of Commerce;
 - One member, to be elected by the Bengal National Chamber of Commerce;
 - One member, to be elected by the Bharat Chamber of Commerce;
- (7) One representative of the Shipping and Baled Jute interests to be nominated by the Calcutta Baled Jute Association;
- (8) Fifteen representatives of the jute growers to be nominated by the Government of India, in consultation with the State Governments, as under:—

(i) Assam	Three
(ii) Bihar.	Four
(iii) Orissa.	Two
(iv) U.P.	One
(v) West Bengal.	Five
- (9) Three members of Parliament, of whom two shall be elected from among themselves by the members of the Lok Sabha and one shall be elected from among themselves by the members of the Rajya Sabha.

The tenure of the appointment of the members of the Committee, other than those who are appointed by reason of office or appointment they hold, will be three years, with effect from 1st April of the year in which they are appointed, or such lesser period as may be specified in the letter of appointment.

Ordered that the Resolution be published in the Gazette of India for general information.

MINISTRY OF EDUCATION AND SCIENTIFIC RESEARCH

RESOLUTION

New Delhi-2, the 8th February 1958

SUBJECT.—Establishment of an English Language Teaching Institute at Hyderabad.

No. F. 18-28/56-D. I.—Whereas, considering the falling standard of English in India, especially at the Secondary Schools stage of education, it is deemed necessary to take steps to improve the teaching of English both through the organisation of research in the teaching of this subject and the training of teachers in the most suitable techniques, the Government of India hereby resolve to establish an English Language Teaching Institute of a sufficiently high standard. The Institute will function under the management of an autonomous body to be known as the Board of Governors, which will be registered under the Society's Registration Act of 1860.

COMPOSITION AND POWERS OF THE BOARD OF GOVERNORS.

2. The Board of Governors shall be elected and supported by funds placed at its disposal by the Government. It shall consist of not more than eleven persons including the Chairman, i.e. educational Experts and one representative each of the Ministry of Education and Scientific Research and the Ministry of Finance, all nominated by the Government of India.

3. The Composition of the Board for the first two years, which may be reviewed thereafter, shall be as follows:—

- (I) Prof. K. G. Saiyidain, Secretary to the Government of India, Ministry of Education & Scientific Research—Chairman.
- (II) Dr. A.M.D. 'Razario, Joint Educational Adviser to the Government of India, Ministry of Education & Scientific Research.
- (III) Prof. N. K. Sidhanta, Vice-Chancellor, Calcutta University.
- (IV) Shri N. N. Wanchoo, I.C.S., Secretary to the Government of India, Ministry of Finance.
- (V) Prof. C. S. Bhandari, Director, English Language Teaching Institute, Allahabad.
- (VI) Shri Samuel Mathai, Secretary, University Grants Commission.
- (VII) Shri A. R. Dawood, Deputy Director, All India Council for Secondary Education.
- (VIII) Shri J. Forrester, Principal, St. Christopher's College, Madras.
- (IX) Dr. G. S. Banerjee, Principal, Ismail Usuf College, Bombay.
- (X) Dr. H. N. Kanzru, M.P.
- (XI) Director—ex-officio (Member Secretary).

4. In the Board of Governors shall be vested full powers to conduct business of, and manage the Institute within such rules and regulations as may be framed with the prior approval of the Government of India. It shall also be entitled to take such action as may be necessary for the furtherance of the programmes and objects of the Institute.

OBJECTS AND FUNCTIONS OF THE INSTITUTE.

5. The objects and functions of the Institute have been envisaged as follows:—

- (a) To train High School teachers of English, Training College Lecturers and Inspectors from the various States of the Union in the use of modern techniques for teaching foreign languages.
- (b) To conduct research into the special problems of Indian Students of English, and to adopt syllabuses based on structural analysis to fill the needs of speakers of Indian Languages.
- (c) To conduct research into the writing of suitable textbooks and the preparation of visual aids.
- (d) To advise State Governments on syllabuses, examinations and Training Colleges curricula and allied topics.
- (e) To publish such journals or papers as would further the objects of the Institute.
- (f) To train English teachers of other Countries of South Asia which may not have made similar provision for importing modern methods of teaching foreign languages.

6. The Institute, when established, is likely to receive assistance from the Ford Foundation or the British Council also in the form of instituting professorships or scholarships in the Institute.

A. M. D. 'ROZARIO,
Joint Educational Adviser.

(Dept. of Cultural Activities & Physical Education).
